In Farra d'Isonzo, we offer for sale a detached house on two levels, complete with an attic and cellar. The property, perfectly habitable, is currently used as a welcoming holiday home.

The entrance opens onto a comfortable living area, followed by the dining room and a separate kitchen. A new bathroom with shower was recently installed on the ground floor.

The first floor hosts two large and bright double bedrooms, a single bedroom and a second full bathroom with shower.

The house is equipped with an efficient, renovated radiator heating system, with a methane boiler located in the cellar.

The property includes driveway access and an additional outbuilding, currently used as a woodshed, but originally used as a stable and barn, with interesting potential for renovation.
