We offer for sale a historic and renowned restaurant business, a landmark in the city for many years. The restaurant, appreciated for the quality of its offerings and its refined atmosphere, is positioned in the medium-high range, with a loyal and consolidated clientele over time. The welcoming and well-organized interior spaces have 50 seats per seat and are flanked by a large and pleasant planted garden, ideal for the summer season and particularly popular with customers. The central, high-traffic location guarantees excellent visibility and easy accessibility. Confidential negotiation - Further information at our offices.
