LUCINICO - In a quiet, sunny residential area surrounded by greenery, we offer for sale a completely independent semi-detached portion of a three-story house in addition to a basement. On the main floor, there's an eat-in kitchen with access to the terrace, a large and bright living room, and a bathroom. The sleeping area, on the upper floor, consists of three bedrooms and a second bathroom. The attic is used as a storage space, while the basement features a tavern and a cellar. The property is in good general condition and only needs a refresh to be customized to your tastes. An ideal solution for families looking to live in a quiet setting, surrounded by nature, without sacrificing proximity to the city center and main services.
